THE LANCASTER

presented by:

the story...

The Lancaster is named after Lancaster Falls located in Hood River County, Oregon. At 303 feet, with the tallest single drop of 231 feet, Lancaster Falls sends a smaller, but extremely consistent volume of water plunging into the rugged beauty of the Columbia River Gorge.

Much like its namesake, The Lancaster aboveground swimming pool from Blue Cascade features a rugged construction not commonly found in entry level swimming pools. With each piece of the pool being exclusively manufactured to exacting standards, you are sure to have many years of family memories. Every Lancaster pool is produced in the United States and features a Vinyl Works deluxe pool liner, also manufactured in the United States.
